

Kingdom Prayer Cycle	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday	Sunday
Lord's Prayer (See version in APBA, p124, based on Matthew 6.9-14)	Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name	your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.	Give us today our daily bread.	Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us.	Save us from the time of trial	and deliver us from evil.	For the kingdom, power and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.
Priority	We celebrate our Father's love, proclaim his power over other so called 'gods'. We adore his perfections: his goodness; kindness; holiness; faithfulness.	We pray for Jesus to reign in human hearts. We pray for St Luke's members and Teams as we do deeds of mercy in his name in the City of Frankston.	We name specifically the needs of body, mind, and soul that burden us today.	As our Father has remembered our weakness and offered us the grace of forgiveness, we pray that we would have strength to do the same for those who have hurt us.	We ask for strength to stand up under trial, and for growth in Christlikeness. Or, that we be shown a way out.	We ask God to reveal to us how the evil one may be seeking to lead us from Christ, and sow discord in relationships. We pray against his purposes.	We ascribe glory to our great God: Father, Son and Spirit. We glorify him for every advancement of his kingdom we have seen.
